

PANELFIT

PARTICIPATORY APPROACHES TO A NEW ETHICAL AND LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR ICT

The PANELFIT's official Newsletter - 18 July 2020

PANELFIT ACTIVITY IN THE NEW NORMALITY

The social transformation that we are living due to the COVID-19 pandemic, has given us a small breathe with the gradual return to the “new normality”, an ambiguous term that fails to reflect the deep changes that affect us at all levels and require us to respond quickly. The PANELFIT project is adapting to these new circumstances and continues its activity in different areas. The challenges are becoming more and more exciting, especially in the topics that base our scope of action in this project, and that is why PANELFIT's commitment to contribute to a fairer society, with better knowledge and greater respect and privacy, is even stronger.

As part of this onward march in these new times, we include the collaboration with The SHERPA Project in its final event, which will also include the participation the Sienna fellow project. It will be an event that will bring together in the spring 2021 a large group of experts and speakers in different sessions, to highlight all the measures that the EU is going to undertake thanks to the work developed in these twin projects, to continue building a society in which citizens' rights prevail.
