

PARTICIPATORY APPROACHES TO A NEW ETHICAL AND LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR ICT

PANELFIT Final Event in Vienna, 28.03.2022

Managing a secure future with AI – Too many guidelines and too little guidance?

13.30 – 14.00	Welcome and opening remarks, Michael Nentwich (Austrian Academy of Sciences) Welcome by PANELFIT Coordinator Prof. Carlos María Romeo Casabona (University of the Basque Country - UPV/EHU) Presentation of PANELFIT's main outcomes, Iñigo de Miguel Beriain (University of the Basque Country - UPV/EHU) Introduction to the topic of this event, Johann Čas (Austrian Academy of Sciences)
14.00– 14.50	From the GDPR to the AI Act – problems solved? Christiane Wendehorst (University of Vienna)
14.50– 15.40	Governing AI: Ethical and Practical Initiatives Charles Raab (University of Edinburgh)
15.40– 16.00	Coffee break
16.00– 17.30	Panel discussion Christiane Wendehorst (University of Vienna) Charles Raab (University of Edinburgh) David Reichel (Fundamental Rights Agency) Alexander Neumann (Ministry of the Interior), tbc Lorena Jaume-Palası (The Ethical Tech Society) Johann Čas (Austrian Academy of Sciences)
17.30 – 18:00	Reception